

International Coal Conference-2011

Introduction

The objective of the Conference is to create awareness, showcase potential, attract investment and highlight initiatives of Federal and Sindh government in the development of Thar coal deposits in the province, stated to be second biggest in the world. It was attended by renowned international, national coal sector specialist, potential investors, existing project developers, representatives of development financial institutions, diplomats, other stakeholders.

Deliverable from the Conference

- Participate in interactive panel discussions confronting the future energy challenges in coal sector.
- Get updates on development plans and new coal mining technologies.
- Build partnerships and identify investment opportunities.
- Seize meaningful networking opportunities with leading industry leaders and policy makers.

Target Audience

- Industry Representatives
- Government departments and agencies
- Officials from Private & Public Sector Units
- Coal Consuming Industries
- Power generators
- Equipment manufacturers
- Environmental engineers
- Logistic & Shipping Companies
- Prospective investors
- Technology Providers
- Diplomats from coal producing countries
- Research Organisations
- Banks and Financial Institutions
- Private equity firms & venture capitalists
- Legal and Consulting Firms

Date & Venue

Date: October 22, 2011

Venue: Hotel Sheraton, Karachi